

5431 Team Structure

Each learner on the team will select one or more subteams to be a part of; A subteam “assignment” is fluid.

Elections shall be held the Week after Championships.

The Speaker shall be elected first.

Each representative will be elected from within and by the SubTeam.

The Chief Speaker and each representative will serve a 1-year term.

All chief subteam officers must fill the following requirements:

Attend club at least 2 days and 90% afternoon meetings

Have at least 1 FRC season veteran status

A team member may hold only ONE Chief position.

Participate in at least 80% of community-service opportunities

All chief sub-team officers will be responsible for the following Duties:

- Accountability
 - Creating and maintaining a plan and timeline for the sub-team that goes along with the whole team’s plan
 - Making sure all teams are up to date and keep track of progress.
- Identify specialized skills necessary for sub-team success
- Train sub-team member(s) on required skills or work to connect the resident expert with a protégé
- Represent the team at school, practice, and in public in a professional manner.
- Lead the sub-team.
- Have knowledge of sub-team’s goals, needs and communicate these with other sub-team chiefs
- Collaborate with other sub-team chiefs to coordinate time with other sub-teams
- Attendance: Keep track of member hours for your sub-team.
- If you are absent, plan of sub-sub teams so that all present members can continue to be productive, and send in meeting agenda notes

Structure Visual:

Head coach –liaison to school district, facilitators, etc; masters the logistics and finances, pick mentors to sit on council, has veto power on all votes
Chief Robotics Officer(more like Speaker) Learner who works with head coach to create agenda and steps in if there is an impasse: they are the tie breaker vote. This was the main topic of conversation last Thursday Duties: Leads meetings, takes meetings, meeting agenda, communication, newsletter, liaison to mentor, Booster Club and Burnham
Chief Build	Chief Program	Chief Electricity	Chief Marketing	Chief Strategy	Chief Media	Chief Outreach
Subteam members	Subteam members	Subteam members	Subteam members	Subteam members	Subteam members	Subteam members

Roles and Responsibilities of Chief Members:

Red is leader role, Black is team role

Speaker: Learner who works with head coach to create agenda, Leads meetings, takes meetings, meeting agenda, communication, newsletter, liaison to mentor, Booster Club and Burnham, Meetings with admin and facilitators; non-voting member unless there is an impasse

Build: Build Bot, CAD, Inventory, Manage CAD laptops

Programming: Program bot, Manage laptops, Keep Code updated and annotated, Dashboard, Vision

Electrical: Schematics, Keep firmware updated, Organize wiring, CAD or have space plan, Wire bot

Marketing: Market bot, Communicate with Build, Pit design, Spirit Design & mascot, fundraising (including, but not limited to: concessions, GoFund Me Account, Events)

Strategy: Scouting plan, Game plan, Talk to friends (alliance plans), Pit scouting, pre event online scouting....Run scouting meeting

Media: Make us look good, Manage social media, Video editing, Website, Work with awards, Approve content, Organize google photo, Check out camera equipment

Outreach: Awards, Community outreach, Grants, Talk to investors, Connecting with other teams

